

DFW ALUM

DFW 120

Spring hinges for swing doors designed for direct installation on the frame or wall and for doors with a 12 mm profile. Reduces installation time by up to 50% compared to a conventional swing hinge, as it does not require recesses in the frame or the door.

Outside materials

- blade: anodized aluminum
- adjustable cap: zamac
- washers: polyamide

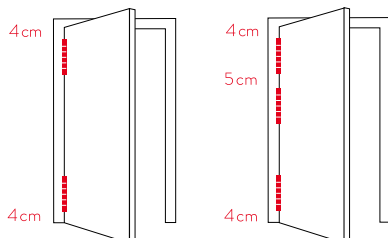

Inside materials

- inner axle: stainless steel AISI 304
- inner spring: stainless steel blades set with protective grease

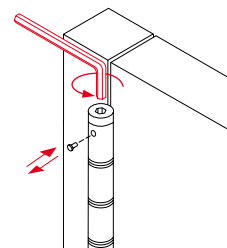

Performance

- application: indoor installation
- automatic return: yes
- adjustable return power: yes
- maximum door opening: 180°
- cycles: more than 500.000

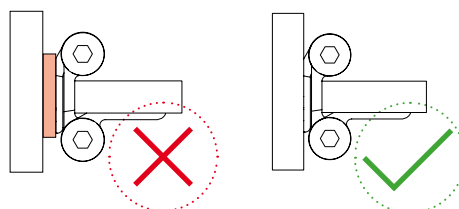

Proper installation of 2 and 3 hinges

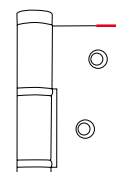

Tension

No rabbet required

3-points adjusting cap

recte

Installation video

DFW 120

